frost together to the head of the stretch. Then Dresmer got his head and he fairly romped home a length and a half in front of Don Roy al who lasted long enough to heat Oro, an added starter, by a head. Dreamer ran the mile in 1.39.

After being practically left at the post in the third race, a handicap for two year-olds, six furlongs, main track, Sydney Paget's Kinleydale, a hot favorite, came through on the rail as the others swung wide coming into the stretch and won in a gallop by three lengths in 1.13 3-5. Accountant, the top weight, who went up from 4 to 5 to 2 to 1, nailed the place from Sidney F., 16 to 5, by a nose.

mailed the place from Sidney F., 16 to 5, by a nose.

The Paget colors were also seen in front when Water Tank, 5 to 1, made all the running in lae fifth race for two-year-olds, six furiongs, straightaway, and won in a drive by a length from Birmingham, the favorite. The latter heat wes, played down to 5 to 1, by a head. The race was run in 1.14.

Boots Durnell's New Mown Hay, pounded down to 6 to 5, ran a mile in the sixth race in 1.38 2-5. equaling the track record hung up the other day by Grapple. She also won in easy style, having five lengths over Benvelio, a so to 1 shot, who beat Hippocrates, the early pacemaker, by a scant length. The latter had a head over Platoon.

St. Roma, 8 to 1, took the first race for maiden fillies, three years olds and upward, one mile, in a drive by a half a length. She was timed in 140 3-5, with Maid of Timbuctoo, 13 to 10 favorite, in the place, and Arietta, 12 to 1, an easy third. Four favorites landed big money for the plungers and the crowd, which, as usual, numbered about 15,000. The summaries:

New Mown Hay was entered to be said for $1,000 and got into the race with 100 pounds in consequence. J. J. McCafferty promptly bid her up to $4,000, Durnell keeping her with an extra $6 raise. The Benvolie, who ran second, quoted at 100 I in some of the books.

Roseben's wonderful performance was the opic of the day. He won after standing at he post for nearly ten minutes while Aerohauf, second choice, was led slowly to the har-rier. The latter's trainer, T. McCreery, was afterward called before the stewards and Afterward called before the stewards and saked why such a delay had been caused by his horse. Roseben's time was all the more remarkable because he ran through the homestretch in the teath of a heavy gale. If Roseben can hang up a world's record in a sallop with 117 pounds on his back, turfmen are anxious to know what burden can stop him. He has been racing steadily all the season after a campaign last winter at severalor the Western tracks and yet has never been in finer frim than now. Much of the credit fer, his splendid achievements belong to Frank Weir, the trainer of Frank Farreli's horses, who has had charge of him since spring. There is no more popular horse in training than Roseben. He has come to be regarded as a cinch betting proposition, and the crowd at large went to him yesterday with supreme confidence. Frank Farrell, Big Tim Sullivan, Joe Cassidy and Dave Johnson all bet heavily on him, and so did the Lachtensteins, Biff Porter, John Fay, Chicago O'2-rien and the clubhouse. He opened at 7 to 5, and was pounded down to 3 to 5, many bookmakers refusing to take a doint at the last moment. Aeronaut, because of a recent fast trial and the fact that he was in receipt of forty pounds from Costigan, Harry Parr and Max Blumenthal, who teok him a place at 3 to 5.

By degrees the betting ring at Belmont Park is becoming more open day by day. Two more non-members were moved up in the first line yesterday. They were Edward Himpe and W. F. Trimble, making ningteen in all, with Frank Tyler at the head. They were believed as a place of the form of the first that he was in receipt of forty pounds from the first line yesterday. By degrees the betting ring at Beimont Park is becoming more open day by day. Two more non-members were moved up in the first line yesterday. They were Edward Blume and W. E. Trimble, making nineteen in all, with Frank Tyler at the head. There were sixty-one Mets in line, two having dropped out since Thursday. It is evidently the plan of John G. Cavanagh to give as many non-members a chance at the front line business as he can find room for, with the result that the public is receiving a far better break as to prices than ever before. Competition is proving the life of the ring, and the non-members are keeping up their end in a manner that shows the wisdom of Cavanagh's policy.

Extraordinary escapes from fatal accidents Extraordinary escapes from fatal accidents do not cease. As the horses were starting for the post in the last race Reticent, a horse owned by L. L. lamar, and ridden by a boy named O'Mahoney, suddenly wheeled and made a dash full tilt for the fence just beyond the clubhouse. As the boy could not restrain him the horse, who evidently wanted to get back to the stable, plunged through the wooden rails and, striking an iron fence, turned a complete somersault. O'Mahoney was thrown heavily upon the grass and was rendered unconscious. The horse ran off among the stables and the boy was carried on a stretcher to the jockeys' room, suffering from an injured hip. It was at Brighton Beach recently that Bon Mot was carried on a stretcher to the jockeys room, suffering from an injured hip. It was at Brighton Beach recently that Bon Mot ran away with O'Mahoney, who escaped unhurt after he had been carried in a wild flight among the stables. The stewards promptly withdrew Retioent and rang the belief or the race to go on. Reticent was the extreme outsider in the betting, being quoted at 100 to 1.

Rodrock, the steeplechase jockey, while schooling Gus Straus over the jumps in the merning, was thrown and so severely injured that he was taken to the Mineola Hospital. Jockey Ray, who was injured in the steeplechase on Thursday, was all right yesterday and may ride Phantom in the Brook Cup this alternoon.

Alwin, Tony Aste's good three-year-old, was brought to the track from the Bay to start in the Dixiana Stakes, but so n after his arrival he was seized with an attack of colic which made it impossible for him to go. This race was run for the first time in 1898, the winners of it being Briar Sweet, Ethelbert, Gonfalon, Watercolor, Oom Paul, Bad News and Rapid Water. Dreamer's time, 1:39, was a new record for the race. The clubhouse bet on Dreamer almost to a man, with the Lichtensteins, Joe Hayman and Jack McDonald also making big bets on the son of Hamburg. Don Royal was played by John Fay, Bob Rose and Morris Stack, while Oro was fancied by R. Angarola and one of the clubhouse agents, who had a solid wager on all three ways.

Previous winners of the Manhattan Handicap were Sanders, Firearm (twice), Musette, King Pepper, Castalian and Broadcloth.

Al Dryer, who bets usually for Drake or Gates, won about $20,000 on Water Tank in the fifth race. Sol Lichtenstein and Morris Stack also bet on this good son of Watercress. Wes, owned by E. A. Chinn and ridden by Garner, was backed down to fives, with Bob Rose, John Moran, Bob McGibbon, Joe Rose and J. Loud taking chances. There was also quite a play on Peeping Tom, a colt by Kingston-Lactita, among his supporters being Eddie Burke and J. England. Isaac Frank bet on Flavigny, John Fay took Sterling and Jack McGinnis played Birmingham, the favorita.

On the Eve caught a lot of smart money. Leo Mayer and Eole Pearsall betting on her liberally. There was a good clubhouse commission on Joseph E. Widener's Flin, while George Boles went to Florrie B.

Kinleydale was another hard blow for the books, as he was backed off the boards. Eddie McDonald, John Fay, Bill Brown, Max Blumenthal, M. L. Hayman, Sol Lichtenstein and the clubhouse agents loaded the money on until the layers cried quits. John Evans and Tom Floyd bet on Accountant, with Sidney F. played by George Cafferata, Bob Rose and J. Loud.

While the plunge on New Mown Hay was going on Martinmas was backed from 30 to 1 down to 8, Eole Pearsall and several clubhouse commissioners going the rounds betting all the books could accept. Tighe was consoled with the information that he was not the only one to lose a bet on Sterling.

Harness Races at Danbury.

DANBURY, Oct. 6.—This city suspended all business to-day to go to the Danbury Fair, and one of the biggest crowds of the week was out to see a splendid card of harness races and a variety of other attractions. The 2:19 trot furnished the most interesting contest of the afternoon, and the bay mare Crimson Clover took first money in four holly contested heats. The 2:25 pace, in which J. H. VANDERBILT RACE NEWS. Start Next Saturday Will Be at 6 o'Clock

-The Practise Work. It has been decided by the Vanderbilt cup race commission that the race will be started at 6 o'clock in the morning next Saturday, with one minute intervals between the cars.

The Mercedes of H. L. Bowden of Boston which it is desired to have take the place of C. G. Dinsmore's entry, arrived in New York yesterday. It has had some repair work done on it here, which raises a delicate ques-tion as to whether it was "all made in Germany," as is necessary in the case of every car on the German team. The car will be examined by a committee, and the race comnission will decide on the question at a meeting to be held at Garden City next Monday. Foxhall Keene, Duray, White, Worden, Szisz. Jenatzy, Stevens, Dingley, Sartori, Hemmery and Wagner were out practising on the course yesterday morning. The fastest lap recorded was one by Szisz, in 27 minutes 52 seconds.

Chairman Morrell of the race commission Chairman Morrell of the race commission said yesterday that he was convinced by having been himself arrested and fined for speeding on the course, that the deputies were doing their duty. He suggested the trap in which he was caught.

Foxhall Keene has been so dissatisfied with his number, which is 13, that he has entered a formal protest, and there will be another drawing of numbers for the German team. Mr. Keene protested on the ground that Mr. Graves, a fellow contestant, should not have drawn for absentees, of whom Mr. Keene was one.

Stout also had a 3 on the twelfth, holing from the mashle, and with a 5 on the seventeenth she still came in with 44. Mrs. Stout was out in 49. making her card 93, and Mrs. C. F. Fox, whom she defeated, was off her game going out. taking 51, but a 3 on the 225-yard tenth hole helped and brought her in with 44. Mrs. Sanford played very steadily, doing 48. 44-92, which equaled Mrs. Reath's card. The New York captain beat Miss A. McNeely, who did 97. Mrs. Fitz Gerald saved her match by a grand finish in 5, 3, 4, for Miss Bryce had been grand finish in 5, 3, 4, for Miss Bryce had been dormie 3. Miss Georgianna Bishop, the national charpion, had a 3 on the 195 yard home hole. Her long game seems to have improved since her experience in the British women's championship, but Mrs. R. H. Bar low also packed up some points in that contest, and, going out in 46 to Miss Bishop's 48, the Philadelphian was 3 up. She won the match by 2 and 1, but Miss Bishop was up for the in holes, and the victory only counted 1 point against the national champion. Miss Bishop came in with 45, making her 93, and Mrs. Barlow in 47, for a 95. A range of 96 to 100 may be set down for the best cards of the other matches, but as for the New York team, no one cared in the joy over their success. The score:

ALBERT C. WINS JOHNSTONE. Big Crowd to See the Trotting Races at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 6.—Another banner crowd witnessed the racing on the fourth day of the fall trotting meeting to-day, and fine sport day, the Johnstone stake for 2:24 class trotters value $2,000, was won by Albert C., who defeated the $5,000 Emma Brook in easy fashion in three of the four heats. The race would have been a gift for the gray gelding in straight heats, but he broke badly in the second heat, and while he caught his stride in two or three lengths he was unable to overtake the mare. Ed Geers won his first race of the meeting in the second event, the 2:12 trot, when his Silverthorn mare, Gold Dust Maid, took the event in straight heats from Lady Pauline C. The 2:18 class pace, the last event on the card, was won by Dan P., who captured three heats in clever style, after losing the first heat, in which he made a poor showing. The unfinished first division of the 2:18 trot was won by A. Penn, who captured the final heat to-day from Miss Kinney, both of whom had two heats to their credit yesterday afternoon. Summarles
